

Advocates Mentoring Advocates Workshop Program Evaluation

We would like to ask you some questions to help us evaluate the Advocates Mentoring Advocates Workshop Training Program which was held from March to June 2014 at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai.

1. What information did you find to be the most helpful?

Please rank each choice from 1 – 5 with 5 being the most helpful and 1 being the least helpful:

5 – extremely helpful; 4 –very helpful; 3-helpful; 2-somewhat helpful; 1-not helpful at all.

_____ Myths About Breast Cancer and Breast Cancer and the Environment

_____ Suspected Environmental Risk Factors for Breast Cancer

_____ Evidence from cell and animal studies but not human studies yet

_____ The Precautionary Principle

_____ What are the Endocrine Disrupting Chemicals We Need to Know About

_____ Identifying the Windows of Susceptibility

_____ Sources of Exposure in Personal Care Products

_____ Sources of Exposures in Pesticides and Household Products

_____ Label Reading

_____ Safer Alternatives and Practices

_____ Community and Legislative Advocacy

For the following questions, place a check mark next to the choice that best fits your feelings about the workshops.

2. Were the number of training workshops

_____ Too few _____ Just right _____ Too many?

3. Was the amount of rehearsal time

_____ Too little _____ Just right _____ Too much?

4. Was the information provided in the training workshops

_____ Too easy _____ Just right _____ Too difficult?

5. How comfortable are you with your ability to present the program to community groups?

_____ Very comfortable _____ Somewhat comfortable _____ Not comfortable

6. Were the training workshops

_____ Too short _____ Just right _____ Too long?

7. What is your overall assessment of the Advocates Mentoring Advocates Workshop training program?

_____ Excellent _____ Very Good _____ Not Very Good _____ Poor

_____ N/A

8. What are your recommendations to improve the Workshop training program?